CLAIM AGENTS ARE GIVEN A GRILLING

Two Ordered from Traction Offices in Sensational Scene.

COMPANY TO SETTLE WITHOUT OTHER AID

Rail Commission Here Taking Wreck Testimony —The Injured.

Following a sensational clash with traction officials, two members of a quartet of strangers styling themselves claim adjusters, who have been seeking contracts from relatives of the dead and injured empowering them to settle damage claims against the company on a 50 per cent. commission basis, were ordered from the general offices of the traction company this morning.

In the course of a bitter excoriation of the men and their methods Attorney J. M. Barrett, chief counsel and a director of the traction company, denounced the men as scoundrels and their proposition to make a "deal" with the company, while ostensibly representing claimants, as infamous. The attorney was wrought up to a high pitch of indignation and he did not mince words. A few minutes after the men had left the building and driven away with their two companions in an automobile, Chief of Police Elliott and S. A. Callahan, assistant prosecuting attorney, were in consultation with the traction officials.

Warns Against Strangers.

The company is especially bitter against the activity of the men who, before the funerals of some of the victims had been held, was seeking to obtain contracts under which they were empowered to force settlements of damage claims against the company, retaining half the sum so recovered as their fee.

Traction officials are warning those interested against signing any sort of a document for strangers. They assert that as soon as it can be done without heartlessly obtruding upon the grief of the death-stricken homes, a fair adjustment of every legitimate claim will be sought. They assert that not only is there no need for any claimant to employ legal counsel or other representatives, but that they will actually save largely by taking the matter up directly with the company.

Rail Commission Here.

Members of the Indiana railroad commission, in executive session at the Anthony hotel this afternoon, began the taking of testimony in its investigation of the Kingsland wreck disaster. Judge William J. Wood, chairman of the commission, declared to The Sentinel that the board proposed to make a thorough investigation of the horror.

Mayor Frank S. Smith, of Bluffton, came to Fort Wayne today to enlist the assistance of the local police in the investigation of an anonymous postal card, mailed in Fort Wayne and received by the mayor. It advised the officials of the overhearing of a conversation of importance bearing upon the wreck.

With the Injured.

There is little change in the condition of the injured survivors at the hospitals, save in the case of A. Eleaberger, of Berne, whose case is not so favorable. The patient has developed considerable temperature and his recovery is now regarded as doubtful.

Motorman Corkwell has not yet regained his mental equilibrium and nobody is permitted to see him. Mrs. W. D. Burgan is making favorable progress and Fred A. Parkhurst is resting easily. The condition of Margaret R. Tribolet continues extremely critical, and it is said that results of a surgical operation, which was performed at midnight Saturday as a last resort, have not been such as to offer any encouragement.

Traction Men Indignant.

Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley authorities are wrought up to a high pitch of indignation over the appearance on the scene of four men who are registered at the Anthony hotel as David Keen, Ed Hahn, Ed Wilson and H. H. Wilson, New York. They present cards inscribed "United States Claim Adjusting company, New York city," and traction officials say they have been scurrying about the country visiting relatives of the dead victims and trying to get signatures to contracts empowering them to settle damage claims against the company, the contract providing for a compensation of half the sum secured from the company.

Traction officials say neither the men nor the company they are supposed to represent are known, and Claim Agent Fahising has been upon the trail of the men, who travel in an automobile, advising everybody to sign no such contracts. Traction officials declare that as soon as the matter can be broached in decency, a fair adjustment will be made of every legitimate claim against the company, and that nobody need to either employ a representative or sign a contract in order to get justice. They are extremely bitter against the tactics of the men who injected themselves into the situation before the funerals of the last of the victims had been held.

Had a Stormy Session.

Two of these claim agents sought an interview with General Manager Emmons this morning, and the result was a stormy session ending with the ordering of the men out of the offices. Two of the men, who introduced themselves as H. H. Wilson and Ed Hahn, entered the offices at 10:30 o'clock, where General Manager Emmons, At-

LORIMER ACCUSER IS FIRST WITNESS

CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY BEGINS

Senator Lorimer Present With Attorney When Inquiry Starts.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—State Representative Charles A. White, of O'Fallon, Ill., was the first witness to take the stand today in the investigation in the election of Senator William Lorimer by the senatorial subcommittee on elections and privileges.

Six of the members of the committee were present when his examination by Attorney Austrian, representing the Chicago Tribune, which in printing White's story several months ago brought on the investigation, began.

White, after identifying letters he said had been sent to him by Leo O'Neil Browne, asking White to establish Browne's position as minority leader in the lower house of the legislature. The witness began to tell of his relations with Browne.

Lorimer There With Attorney.

Senator Lorimer was on hand early with his attorney, Elbridge Hanecy. Attorney P. H. O'Donnell, who represented Browne in the latter's two trials on charges of bribery, sat beside Attorneys Hanecy,, Autrian and Clifford. Barnes, of the legislative league, sat on the opposite side of the room.

Among those in the small club room of the Congress hotel, where the hearings are being held, were Mrs. J. C. Burrows, wife of the chairman of the commission; Mrs. R. J. Gamble and Mrs. Joseph T. Johnston, who are with their husbands, Senators Gamble and Johnston, of the committee. The room was crowded with newspaper men and as many spectators as could be seated.

After an executive session Chairman Burrows was informed that counsel had not agreed on submission of the legislature's voting record in lieu of summoning the house clerk, but would do so soon.

White's Ttestimony.

White on direct examination by Attorney Austrian declared he had been asked by Minority Leader Browne to vote for Lorimer, and that Browne told him he would receive $1,000 for his vote. The testimony was the same as had been given by White in the two trials of Browne.

The first severe clash of the hearing came when Attorney Austrian asked what money was promised White. The witness replied:

"I asked Browne how much I would get 'from other sources' and he replied, 'Oh, about as much more.'"

Senator Lorimer's attorney objected to this answer, arguing that "other sources" were entirely outside the case.

Brings Up the "Jackpot."

"This brings up," he said, "what has been referred to as the 'jackpot.' By the words of the witness, 'other sources,' it is shown that it has no connection with the election of Senator Lorimer."

To which Mr. Austrian replied:

"We claim that this line of testimony is relevant because we will show that the democratic state senators and representatives who voted for Senator Lorimer voted for him as a part of a system in which their votes on other measures and their vote for Senator Lorimer were correlated. We are

SOUGHT A NEW AND PURER LIFE BY SUICIDE

Miss Fitch Explains Why She Tried to End Existence.

New York, Sept. 26.—Miss Vera Fitch, the young Californian, who shot herself in the Hotel Astor on August 26, gave her reasons last night in an unusual interview. She said she hoped for reincarnation in a more moral world.

The case has been surrounded by much mystery. The young woman's relatives first refused to admit her identity and the only hint of her motive was gleaned from a letter to her mother, in which she wrote:

"The Fourth Estate has proven too strong for me. It is really deplorable that a girl cannot succeed honorably in New York. In some things I might have succeeded had I conceded to the wishes of men, cultured usually, moneyed usually, but minus morals. Death is preferable."

It was known that she had literary ambitions.

Lying in the hospital where she is convalescing, Miss Fitch said tonight: "I dreamed of a better day when such men would be unknown, when the world would have one moral standard for both men and women. In the belief I might live again in that purer time I tried to kill myself."

Miss Fitch was born in Oakland, Cal., 23 years ago. Her father was Col. Henry H. Fitch, at one time a millionaire.

REBATES GO ON THE BOOKS AS DAMAGE ACCOUNTS

Charge Made That Roads Are Violating the Elkins Law.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Indirect charges that the railroads in the west were violating the Elkins anti-rebate law and were favoring certain shippers and charging the alleged rebates to "damage accounts" were made today at the inter-state commerce commission's hearing into the advisability of allowing western railroads to make a general raise in freight rates. Clifford Thorne, representing a Live Stock association, a Manufacturers' league and Farmers' Co-operative association delivered the implication in questioning C. J. McPherson, assistant general manager of the Missouri Pacific railroad. The colloquy began by Mr. Thorne's question: "To what account were rebates charged prior to 1904?"

"I know nothing of rebates," replied the witness.

"I do not know that rebates ever were given."

"What I want to find out," persisted Mr. Thorne, "is this: Is it possible that rebates still are given as they were then, and charged to 'damage accounts' or similar accounts? I want to find out what the procedure was then, to see if it still is followed and I invariably meet with the answer, I don't know, from men whose very business is to know."

Attorney Jeffreys, representing the railroad interposed with the query: "May I learn to what end you are aiming?"

"Certainly," retorted Mr. Thorne. "In your railroads 'damage accounts,' the same as in others there has been a startling increase since 1904 with no satisfactory explanation. The Elkins bill was passed in 1903. I have more than hearsay advice that there is a connection betwewen these damage accounts and rebates. I want to find out if rebates still are being given."

Commissioner Edgar E. Clarke, who alone represented the commission today listened interestedly to the remarks by Mr. Thorne who concluded by saying he would ask the commission to make a special investigation to the additional damage accounts.

HASKELL TRIAL BEGINS.

Oklahoma Governor Again Tries to Get a Postponement.

McAlester, Okla., Sept. 26.—The trial of Charles N. Haskell, governor of Oklahoma, in what are known as the Muskogee town lot cases was called here today before Federal Judge John A. Marshall, of Salt Lake City, Utah.

In the indictment returned by a federal grand jury Gov. Haskell and five business men of Muskogee are charged with "conspiracy to defraud the government" in the disposal of about six hundred town sites. The sites were sold by the government in 1902 on behalf of the Creek Indians.

It is alleged that Gov. Haskell and others, by falsely scheduling, procured the lots illegally.

Judge Marshall denied a motion by Haskell's attorney, who argued that the governor's executive duties required a postponement until after the expiration of his term in January.

CABINET MEETS IN WASHINGTON

First Time in Three Months President's Official Family Gathers.

WILL ASSEMBLE NOW EVERY DAY

Important Matters for It to Consider—Some of the Affairs.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The first of the series of cabinet meetings that will mark the stay of President Taft in Washington this week was held today. It had been just three months since the official family was last together.

Incidentally the president's house party also began today, its formal opening being the luncheon scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Mr. Taft has been looking forward to the week with his cabinet for some time. It was his own idea to give this impetus to the fall and winter work in all of the departments.

Much for Cabinet to Do.

The cabinet days will be busy ones. A long program of subjects to be considered has been made up by the president and each day's sitting is expected to be a prolonged one. While the cabinet will meet each morning the members will have their afternoons free, so that they may dispose of matters at the various departments.

In a general way the cabinet discussions are to be on the subject of forthcoming judicial appointments by the president; foreign affairs, including the readjustment in progress in Nicaragua; reports, estimates and economy plans from the various departments; inauguration of the postal savings banks and the extension of the civil service to include assistant postmaster and permanent clerks in money order offices.

Dickinson Absent.

The only absentee around the cabinet table today was Secretary of War Dickinson, who is still in the far east. It was stated by various members of the cabinet that politics would be given little or no consideration at this time. A great deal of departmental work has accumulated during the summer and the consideration of it will keep the president's official family well occupied during the next few days.

FRENCH AVIATOR KILLED.

Charlas, France, Sept. 26.—The aviator, Poillot, was killed yesterday while making a flight with a passenger; the latter escaped with slight injuries. The machine had reached a height of ninety feet when a piece of canvas ripped out from the wing. The aeroplane fell, turning completely over, burying the two men under the wreckage. Poillot's spine was broken.

PRESIDENT SENDS REGRETS.

Washington, Sept. 26.—President Taft today sent a telegram to President Fowler, of the national irrigation congress at Pueblo, Col., expressing his regret at being unable to attend th eeighteenth annual gathering.

A BEAUTIFUL GIRL FOUND SLAIN IN OLD HOUSE

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 26.—A Detroit News dispatch from Goodrich, Ont., says:

Elizabeth Anderson, 16 years old, regarded as one of the most beautiful girls of this city, was found murdered yesterday in a deserted house on the outskirts of town. Her father, Wesley Anderson, led the searching party that discovered the girl's body. Miss Anderson disappeared yesterday morning soon after being seen in conversation with a stranger. No alarm was felt until after noon, when her father got a few friends to unite with him in the search, which was soon joined by hundreds.

The body was found in a dark corner of a cellar buried under a pile of clothing. The young woman's throat was cut from ear to ear, the wound having been made apparently with a heavy knife or possibly an ax and her body was badly mutilated.

TAKE CHARGE OF CLUB HOUSE.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Gross Go to Knitting Mills Institution.

F. Y. Gross, manager and owner of the Homestead cafe for several years, has sold his business to take charge of the new club house and dormitory which the Wayne Knitting Mills company expects to open about the middle of next month. Mr. Gross and his wife will have complete charge of the club house, which will include, besides an immense diningroom on the second floor, rooms for amusement on the first floor for employes. Mrs. Gross will have charge of the girls' dormitories on the third floor, where girls who come from out of town to work for the mills can find comfort and homelike surroundings if they choose. Mr. Gross is experienced and expert in his line and declares that the new kitchen and diningroom, of which he is to have charge, will not be excelled by any other modern culinary department of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Gross will have a suite of apartments in the club house and their work of supervising arrangements will begin at once.

ARMY FURNISHES SPECTACLE.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 26.—Five thousand troops, representing every branch of the service of the United States army, are participating in the military tournament which opened here with a military parade this morning. Brigadier General Frederick A. Smith, of Fort Omaha, commander of the department of the Missouri, rode at the head of the parade which required an hour to pass a given point.

MUCH DAMAGE BY STORM.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 26.—An electrical storm of unusual severity during which 2.6 inches of rain fell, did much damage here last night and early today. The storm raged incessantly for nearly eight hours. The storm was general over Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Southern Nebraska.

RAILWAYS HOSTILE TO THE WATERWAYS

Control Frontages and Do Not Afford Water Terminals.

FEDERAL EXPERT MAKES A REPORT

Herbert Knox Smith Says Co-Ordination is an Unknown Quantity.

Washington, Sept. 26.—"Probably the greatest single deterrent to water terminal advance in the United States is the present adverse attitude of rail lines toward independent water traffic, in their exclusive control of frontage in refusal or neglecte to co-ordinate with general water traffic and in refusal to prorate generally with water lines in through movement of traffic."

This is one of the conclusions of Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations in part III just made public of his report to the president on water transportation in the United States.

Five Salient Points.

After an exhaustive inquiry into the harbor situation of the country and analysis of conditions Commissioner Smith deals in this section of the report with water terminals and he finds five salient facts regarding them: "That terminals are as important as channels; that the harbors of the country have not fully developed their terminal frontage, nor are they properly organized or controlled; that railroads largely control water terminals, often to the disadvantage of general water traffic; that there is almost no linking up of the rail and general water systems at the water's edge, but rather the opposite tendency, and that there is little co-operation by localities with the federal government which improves their channels."

Little Hope of Waterways.

Relating to railroad co-operation, Commissioner Smith says:

"Until this underlying relation of rail to water systems is adjusted on some common sense basis of harmony, there is little hope of great advancec in water terminal conditions. Lack of co-operation between localities and the federal government in water terminal development, he says, is in marked contrast to those continental counties whose waterways have been most highly developed."

STATE VS. NATION.

Controversy Over Natural Resources in Irrigation Congress.

Pueblo, Col., Sept. 26.—The controversy between state and federal governments for control of natural resources will be the feature of the national irrigation congress which opened here this morning. Today's program includes an industrial parade and the throwing open of the irrigation exposition. The irrigation congress will be called to order by Chairman Insinger, of the executive committee and Governor John F. Shafroth will deliver the address of welcome which will be responded to by President Fowler of the congress.

Keen interest attaches to the speeches of William J. Bryan who will address the congress tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Col. R. E. Twichell, of Las Vegas, N. M., first vice president of the congress, is being boomed for the presidency.

KID M'COY NEAR DEATH.

Pugilist in Explosion and Fire on a Gasoline Launch.

New York, Sept. 26.—Norman Selby, better known as "Kid" McCoy, the pugilist, narrowly escaped death today from an explosion and fire on a launch in which he had passed the night with a friend on the Hudson river.

Selby and his friend, Frank George, of Manhattan, were preparing a chafing dish feast over an alcohol lamp when the lamp exploded. The wood work of the craft caught fire and the gasoline tank was threatened. Both men dived over the side and Selby held on to the edge of the craft while George swam to shore and returned to Selby's rescue with a row boat. The men had hardly left the launch when the gasoline tank blew up and the boat was totally destroyed.

ATTENDED THE FUNERALS.

Two Hundred Fort Wayne Elks Went to Bluffton Sunday.

Two hundred Fort Wayne members of the Elks were at Bluffton Sunday to attend the funerals of H. D. Cook and Lloyd Brown, members of the order who lost life in the Kingsland wreck. The trip was made in three special cars supplied by the traction company, and the lodge drum corps accompanied the funeral party.

Ohio—Unsettled weather with showers tonight or Tuesday; colder Tuesday and in west portion tonight; moderate variable winds.

Lower Michigan—Showers tonight and Tuesday; colder Tuesday; moderate southeast, shifting to northwest winds.

"WE'LL BEAT 'EM TO A FRAZZLE"

MEANING THE OLD GUARD AT SARATOGA

Jim Sherman on Other Hand is Bursting Full of Confidence.

Troy, N. Y., Sept. 26.—"We are going to Saratoga to beat them to a frazzle; do not forget the word, frazzle," said Col. Roosevelt in a speech to a crowd which he made at Troy station today on his way to Saratoga. "I came back from Africa with some trophies and when we get back from Saratoga we shall have some more trophies."

ROOSEVELT ARRIVES.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon and was given a big reception at the railroad station, where the progressive leaders, together with scores of delegates and hundreds of the townsfolk had gathered. An impromptu parade was formed and Col. Roosevelt was escorted to his headquarters, where he took personal charge of the progressive forces.

SHERMAN IS CONFIDENT.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—With the coming today of Vice President Sherman on the scene of political battle the "old guard" forces redoubled their energies to secure control of the republican state convention and prevent Colonel Roosevelt and the progressives from naming the candidates and writing the party platform.

Mr. Sherman had scarcely alighted from the train before he was in conference with William Barnes, Jr., who frankly stated that neither side had a majority of the delegates and that the fight was far from settled.

"No, there is nothing to say," said Vice President Sherman. "And there won't be anything to say later, as I look at it."

"Sunny Jim" Confident.

"Who is going to be temporary chairmon of the convention?"

"I am," was the reply. "That's what I came here for."

"Doesn't it look rather funereal?" asked an up-state newspaper man.

"Oh, no; perfectly delightful."

Mr. Sherman was in high good humor and was cordially greeted by the

STATE CLOSING ITS CASE IN MILLER HEARING

Hope to Get at Arguments by Tomorrow Afternoon.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Auburn, Ind., Sept. 26.—In the hearing of the Herman Miller murder case the state continued throughout the day its attack upon the general reputation of the prisoner, his wife, John Stout and John Baker and introduced in evidence a number of witnesses who swore that all bore bad names in and around Woodburn.

Judge R. K. Erwin for the defense questioned each of these witnesses closely and several of them could not point any particular instance in which their reputations had been brought into controversy and all said they had not heard either accused of being untruthful or dishonest.

Mrs. Small, who gave her address as 2401 South Calhoun street, Fort Wayne, stated that the reputation of Mrs. Miller was bad, but after she had been cross-examined she admitted she heard nobody say a word against the wife of the prisoner and the jury was instructed to disregard her testimony entirely.

Ernest Scheppelman was called to impeach Miller on the statement that he was in Fort Wayne the night of the Eby barber shop robbery, but was a little hazy in his recollection and could not exactly fix the date upon which he met Miller in a saloon there.

Prosecutor A. E. Thomas announced this morning that he thought he would be able to close his case some time this afternoon. Judge Erwin has a few witnesses on surrebutial and it is believed the case will be ready for argument by tomorrow afternoon.

Among the witnesses of the day was Martin Detzer, secretary of the Fort Wayne waterworks and formerly a deputy sheriff. He testified to a conversation with Mrs. Miller in which she related the incidents of the night of the murder and an effort was made to show that she had contradicted herself torney J. M. Barrett and Claim Agent Ahlsing were sitting.

Mr. Barrett says that Wilson, who was spokesman for the pair, declared that they were here to save the traction company some money, and then outlined his proposition. This, Mr. Barrett says, was in effect that they were to get from relatives of the dead and from the injured power of attorney enabling them to settle damage claims against the company; that they were to "boost" the damage claims to the legitimate heirs of the dead in order to impress them that it would be possible to get a high figure; that meanwhile the company was to plead poverty and declare its inability to pay, even going to the length of hinting at a receivership; that the claim agents would "manage" the newspapers and that finally the claimants might be induced to settle possible $10,000 claims for about $4,000, and that in this manner the company was to be saved money.

Mr. Barrett Opens Fire.

It was at this juncture that Mr. Barrett admits that he lost his temper, and others in the room declare that the verbal castigation which the attorney gave the visitors was a finished work. Mr. Barrett told the men they were the most consummate scoundrels he had ever known; that he had never been so insulted by any proposition ever made to him, which he declared amounted to a request that the company enter with them into a conspiracy to defraud the people, adding that he would not trust them to carry a soiled stocking across the road lest they purloin it. Mr. Barrett closed by declaring: "There's the door; now you fellows get out of here quickly."

Traction officials were still surcharged with feeling when they summoned the chief of police and the deputy prosecuting attorney, and it is believed efforts will be made to effectually stop the operations of the so-called claim agents. Traction officials were unable to ascertain whether or not the men had been successful in securing any contracts. They were willing to agree with the traction company, it is said, that after they had secured $25,000 for the entire job, no further commission would be charged.

Rail Commission Arrives.

Members of the Railroad commission reached the city shortly before noon today over the Lake Erie and Western railroad from Indianapolis. In the party were Judge W. J. Wood, Judge J. F. McClure and F. E. Payne, commissioners; M. F. Brady, clerk, and Alexander A. Shane, chief inspector.

They found a number of witnesses who had already been subpoenaed awaiting them. These included General Manager Emmons, Director J. M. Barrett, Frank I. Hardy, superintendent of transportation, F. R. Fahlsing, claim agent; W. H. Frymire, train dispatcher, who was on duty when the wreck occurred, as well as a number of other traction employes. Another witness there was U. G. Russell, formerly section foreman for the traction line at Ossian, but not now in the company's employ. It is expected to show by Russell's testimony that the company had endeavored to purchase the right to cut away the clump of trees on the Summers farm at the curve where the wreck occurred, in order to permit a clear view of the track for a greater distance.

Train Dispatcher W. H. Frymire was the first witness called before the commission and he was still on the witness stand at 2:30 o'clock.

Rigid as a Grand Jury.

Sessions of the commission are being held in rooms 312 and 314 at the Anthony hotel, and the procedure is as rigid as a grand jury investigation. Every possible secrecy surrounds it. There are no spectators and not even an attorney is permitted in the room. During the taking of the testimony only the witness, the three members of the commission and the clerk are present.

The commission went into session at 1 o'clock, and Judge Wood, chairman of the board, said it would hardly be possible to conclude the examination of witnesses today. Several others whose testimony is desired had been subpoenaed before the Wells county grand jury at Bluffton today, and their testimony will probably be taken tomorrow.

Judge Wood said the members of the board purposed making a thorough examination, and the testimony of the trainmen concerned will be taken as soon as it can be secured. The chairman said that the scene of the wreck would be visited by the commission, and that in all probability the board would go to the home of Conductor Del Wilson, near Ossian, later in the day to take his testimony. Wilson was the conductor in charge of the extra southbound car.

Thousands Visit Scene.

Thousands of people, many of them from Fort Wayne, visited on Sunday the scene of the frightful disaster near Kingsland, and scores sought souvenirs of the grewsome tragedy in the form of portions of the splintered cars, bits of clothing and other debris that still marks the fated spot.

Dr. E. Wyllie Andrews, a distinguished Chicago brain specialist, came to Fort Wayne Saturday evening for consultation in the case of Margaret Tribolet, the Bluffton young woman who has been at St. Joseph's hospital in an extremely critical condition since the accident. It was determined to attempt a surgical operation as a last resort and this was performed at midnight by Dr. Andrews, assisted by Dr. Dinnen. A lombard puncture was made in the spine to drain the blood and other fluid from the brain, and when this failed to relieve the pressure, the skull was trepanned. The case was so desperate as to offer little hope, but it was believed this might possibly be beneficial. The patient, however, appears to grow weaker and weaker each moment, and physicians are able to hold out but faint hope that the young woman can survive.

Learns of Husband's Death.

At Hope hospital Sunday Mrs. W. D. Burgan, of Bluffton, was told of her husband's death. The news was broken to her by the family physician, Dr. L. A. Severin, of Bluffton. Mrs. Burgan had been led to believe that her husband was merely injured, and it was feared to tell her the exact truth until she had recovered somewhat from the shock of her own injuries. The blow was a prostrating one, but the patient is bearing up as bravely as possible under it, and so far as her own injuries are concerned, is gaining quite rapidly.

Find Nothing in Story.

Mayor Frank S. Smith, of Bluffton, was in the city today and sought the aid of the police in locating Jess Daugherty, who the writer of an anonymous postal card said knew something of the causes that led up to the Kingsland wreck. The postal was vague but said the writer had overheard a conversation in which Daugherty was one of the principals and advised the mayor to look him up.

Chief Ben Elliott had the matter looked into and found that the Pennsylvania company has no such employe although the writer of the postal said the man could be found there. The name is not in the directory and the police could not find such a man.

GRAND JURY ORGANIZES.

Subpoenas Issued for Witnesses in Kingsland Case.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Bluffton, Ind., Sept. 26.—After it had gone through the formality of electing D. V. Lamm foreman, the special grand jury summoned to investigate the traction wreck at Kingsland placed in the hands of the sheriff subpoenas for a number of witnesses and took an adjournment until tomorrow morning.

George Thompson, one of the men selected when the jury was drawn, was excused on account of the death of his wife, which took place last week and W. A. Lipkey, formerly sheriff of Wells county, was chosen in his place.

Among the witnesses to be summoned are A. A. Shane, of the state railroad commission, the crews of the local car, General Manager C. D. Emmons and Frank Hardy, superintendent of transportation of the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company and Conductor B. T. Corkwell, if he is able to testify.

The coroner began his investigation this morning and examined a few unimportant witnesses who were at the scene of the wreck. He has been searching for J. R. Boyd, a passenger who jumped from the local car before the wreck took place. He was in Fort Wayne and gave an account of the horror and has since dropped out of sight.

He has been sought at Marion, which he gave as his address, but without success and an effort will be made to locate him at Jonesboro. He is one of the most important witnesses in the investigation and a strong effort will be made to locate him.

In addition to railroad officials and the crews of the cars the coroner will also summon Mr. Shane to testify. He stated that he would not be able to make a final report for several days, as he wants time after the testimony has been taken to look it over carefully before filing his final report.

FUNERALS AT WARREN.

Warren, Ind., Sept. 26.—Funeral services for Fred Jones and Silas E. Thompson, two of the victims of the Kingsland wreck, were held here this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. One of Thompson's sisters who came from the west could not make connections from Marion that would get her here in time for the services and she was met there by an automobile and arrived a few minutes before the time arranged for the obsequies.

WILL OFFER A REWARD.

Delaware County Commissioners Seek Banker's Assassin.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 26.—The assassination of Norman Black, the Muncie banker, last Thursday night continues to baffle the police and the Delaware county commissioners have practically decided to offer a reward for the slayer. Mr. Black's friends, however, are openly advocating that the matter be dropped and the Black family has refused to offer any reward for the arrest and conviction of the slayer.

The police are still looking for a mysterious woman who was seen near the scene of the crime, just about the time the murder is supposed to have been committed.

STOVALLS AGREE AND COMPROMISE ON DIVORCE

Wife Gets Decree and Alimony Matter Settled —Courts.

Although Ida and Chester Stovall could not agree upon the conditions of their marriage pact they did agree after part of a hearing of their divorce suit in the superior court today before W. C. Ryan, special judge, that it would be better to agree upon a settlement than to stand for some very sensational developments and a decree was granted to the wife.

The question of alimony was compromised and the wife agreed to dismiss a criminal action for fraudulent marriage. As much of the testimony as was heard gave promise of developing a most salacious case and this brought about the compromise.

Court Notes.

Arguments were heard on the question of whether or not Louis Waldschmidt had a right to compromise his claim against the N. Y. C. & St. L. railroad after he had given it to Harper and Eggeman and suit had been instituted and the matter was sent on change of venue to the Adams county court.

Emma Eix has dismissed her divorce suit against Walter Eix.

Wife's Affections Worth $1,900.

Ralph Mossal values the affections of his wife at $1,900 and has asked that amount of Jacob Kimmel, who he says won his better half away from him. Suit was filed in the superior court.

Came Home Drunk.

Although all the papers in the divorce suit of Perry Merritt against Adah Merritt have been withdrawn from the files, he testified in the circuit court today that she came home drunk. He was given a decree and the custody of one of the children. The wife was given the other with $20 a month for support.

Cases Dismissed.

In the superior court the divorce suits of Mella D. Williams against Charles C. Williams and David B. Carey against Ida B. Carey were dismissed.

leaders of both sides and the delegates as he went to his rooms.

One of the first to greet him was Cornelius V. Collins, of Troy, Colonel Roosevelt's up-state lieutenant. Mr. Collins and the vice president shook hands.

Lou Payne, former state superintendent of insurance, buttonholed Mr. Sherman and swung him into a private hallway, saying, "I'm with you until the last."

Mr. Sherman then retired for his talk with Mr. Barnes and the other "old guard" leaders who had been summoned for a counting of noses and a final drafting of plans.

Fight Not Settled, Said Barnes.

"The fight for the temporary chairmanship is far from settled," said Barnes earlier in the day, "and until it is settled I am not going to talk. There is much to be done. I can tell you this, that the progressives at this moment have not a majority of the delegates; in fact, neither have we.

"Until the chairmanship fight is over there is no use talking, candidates. We are going to present a complete platform to the resolutions committee and will not submit to any amendments whatever. I have nothing to say about the planks in our platform."

Mr. Barnes' statement that the "old guard" would present a whole platform was a complete surprise, it having been expected that Colonel Roosevelt's opponents would confine themselves then to an active opposition to certain plans of the progressives' platform, with which they were not in sympathy.

Delegates Marked Time.

The delegates to the republican state convention representing the progressive wing of the party, who are fighting the old guard for control, marked time today pending the arrival of Theodore Roosevelt, who was expected at 2:30 p. m. A conference of the progressive leaders was continued until after midnight, planning details of the convention and the fight for delegates.

In the old guard camp there was the same air of expectancy and prior to the arrival of Vice President Sherman groups of his partisans discussed the probable effect on their cause of the presence of their leader. The moral effect of Mr. Roosevelt's presence on the night before the conflict is expected by the progressives to crumble up all effective opposition to the movement to place the former president in control of the convention. Meanwhile both the old guard and progressives claimed a majority of the 1015 delegates.

Interest in Committee.

Interest centers in the action of the state committee at tonight's meeting, with special reference to the threats said to have been made on behalf of the old guard to demand a revote on the question of whether Roosevelt or Sherman shall be temporary chairman for the alleged purpose of vindicating the committee from the charge that has been made that the result of the New York meeting was brought about by trickery.

The tentative platform of the progressives has been described by one of its drafters as one "short, crisp and distinctively Rooseveltian." It is understood that the main plank is for direct nominations on the lines already announced by Lloyd C. Griscom. The document is said also to contain a labor clause and a strong commendation of the work of the legislative probe committee.

The Colonel Leaves Home.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Ex-President Roosevelt left Sagamore Hill by automobile early this morning for New York to take a train for Saratoga. Colonel Roosevelt is confident that he will be elected temporary chairman of the convention by a majority of at least 100. The former president's declaration of yesterday that he would accept no compromise on the direct nominations plank will, it is believed, bring up that issue, which was the chief cause of the present contest because the principal point to be fought, aside from the struggle for the control of the convention itself.

PLENTY OF CASH IN THE LAND SAYS TREASURY

Money Abundant and the Crops of All Sorts Are Bumpers.

Washington, Sept. 26.—It is unlikely that there will be any shortage of money this fall anywhere in the United States. This is not to be construed as a promise to any particular individual, but is the large, impersonal view of the treasury department, whose hand is on the pulse of the nation's financial and business life and represents the opinion of officials who constantly watch for symptoms of any stringency. In their opinion, the danger mark if there actually has been one during several months past, has been left astern. They give these reasons for their prediction of plentiful money:

Money is plentiful in England and on the continent of Europe. That is always said to be a good sign in making a prediction for this country.

Nearly every crop in this country this year is reported to be a bumper one.

Corn will set a new record. Four-fifths of the crop has been gathered, so the chances of loss from frost is small. The oats crop is the greatest in years.

The cotton crop will be one million bales greater than it was last year. Nearly all other crops are reported very large. Next month it is estimated, investors all over the country will receive $17,000,000 in dividend checks from industrial, railroad and other corporations. That will add, of course, to the money generally in circulation.

One of the best reasons why treasury officials believe there will be no money stringency is that the national banks are preparing themselves to issue $500,000,000 extra currency, as the emergency currency law provides, if they have to. Through the efforts of Secretary MacVeagh, banks in most of the large cities have prepared themselves and others are getting ready. Mr. MacVeagh believes the common knowledge that such an immense sum if available would stop any general movement to take money out of the banks and hoard it in stockings.

trying to show there was a general state of corruption in that legislature and that men there were trying to bribe others."

The committee retired to executive session to consider the advisability of this line of evidence.

Other Dealings With Browne.

With the admissability of the testimony relating to the so-called jack pot still in abeyance, White was asked to relate his later dealings with Browne.

The witness testified he was paid $150 by Browne in Springfield and that early in June in the Briggs house, Chicago, he was given $850 by Browne.

"When he paid me the money Browne cautioned me about showing fifty dollar bills around and told me that was all the Lorimer money," said White.

Letters from Browne to White were read by Attorney Austrian, who then took up the visit of White to St. Louis, July 16, 1909, in response to a telegram purporting to have been sent by epresentative Robert E. Wilson. Without interruption White testified that he met several of his democratic colleagues in the legislature in St. Louis that day.

Hanecy Objected.

Attorney Hanecy objected to the witnesses telling of the payment of $900 to him by Wilson, which Attorney Austrian said was what was being brought out. "This St. Louis affair," said Attorney Hanecy, "is a part of the so-called jack-pot and has nothing whatever to do with the subject of this investigation.

Attorney Austrian again declared he offered the testimony to prove general corruption in the legislature and insisted that Senate committees in similar investigations had held such testimony admissible.

Chairman Burrows interrupted the argument of counsel by announcing the noon recess.

White has already told his story in the Cook county grand jury room and twice in the two trials of Minority Leader Lee O'Neil Browne. Another democratic state representative, H. J. C. Beckemeyer, is expected to be the second witness to be heard by the senators and it is understood that State Senator W. D. Holtslaw of Iuka, Ill., has been summoned as the third witness.

Was Paid $2,500 for His Vote.

Holtslaw is credited with having confessed that he was aid $2,500 for his vote for William Lorimer. His confession was made to the state's attorney and the grand jury of Sangamon county.

Examination and cross-examination of Representative White is expected to be made by counsel for and against Senator Lorimer and his testimony may occupy the entire session today. Senator James B. Frazier, democrat, of Tennessee, has not yet arrived. The other senators on the committee are Chairman Burrows, of Michigan; Gamble, of South Dakota; Heyburn, of Idaho; Bulkeley, of Connecticut, republicans, and Paynter, of Kentucky, and Johnston, of Alabama, democrats.

CRIPPEN IS CHARGED.

London Coroner Holds Him for Wilful Murder.

London, Sept. 26.—The coroner's jury today rendered a verdict of wilful murder against Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, the American dentist, in connection with the finding in the Crippen Hilldrop Crescent residence last July of the mutilated body supposed to be that of Crippen's wife, who was known on the stage as Belle Elmore.

In summing up the case this afternoon the coroner said that the evidence presented concerning the identity of the buried body was unusually slim, but that there was little doubt that the remains were human. Although the physicians frankly said they could not swear as to the sex on anatomical grounds, they agreed that all indications pointed to the mutilated flesh being that of a woman. He pointed out that Belle Elmore had completely disappeared and that the body had been found in her husband's cellar.

Slim Evidence as to Identity.

Other evidence as to the identity of the body, the coroner contended, was the testimony given by several women that Belle Elmore bore a scar, and that the doctors had reached the conclusion that a mark found on a piece of skin had been a scar. He also spoke of finding with the remains hair showing signs of having been bleached, and drew attention to the finding of hyoscin in the body and the purchase of this drug by Dr. Crippen.

The coroner further recalled to the jury the varying stories Dr. Crippen, after the disappearance of his wife, and to his own disappearance with Miss Leneve.

As to Miss Leneve's position the coroner told the jurors that it was not duty of theirs to consider the question of accessory after the fact. The jury remained out just one hour and on concluding announced the verdict that the remains were those of Crippen's wife and that she had been wilfully murdered by the American dentist, adding that hyoscin poisoning was the cause of death.

The verdict reached by the coroner's jury was to the effect that the mutilated body found buried in the cellar of the Crippen home was that of Cora Crippen, who had been wilfully murdered by Dr. Crippen. The verdict added that the cause of death was poisoning by hyoscin.

Still Hunting for Witness.

The inquest had been dragged out longer than usual in order to give the police time to search for evidence. They are still hunting for a witness and expect to bring at the trial more testimony tending to identify Bell Elmore's body through the agency of a piece of flesh found to contain a scar.

The case will come up for trial at the next criminal sessions, which are scheduled for October 11, and probably will be called up about October 18.

CABLE STITCH.

Here is the very newest of embroidery stitches, cable stitch, not yet in all the shops, but already immensely popular with women who really know what's what in the fancy work line.

Use a thick floss silk— the stitch is best for embroidering such articles as soft pillows, the fronts of heavy shirtwaists, etc. Begin with a knot; then, holding the silk down on the outline of your design, throw a loop back of the needle (or across your thumb) and make a short stitch from left to right on the outline. This is your only stitch through the goods; when the work is completed the other side should show nothing but a pattern formed of these little parallel stitches.

Next, still holding down the thread, run your needle through the little silk line left by running from one knot to the next, and pull this rather loosly toward you. Finally, the silk always held down, run the needle through the loop of this knot and pull tightly forward.

For the next knot, put the needle through the linen a very short space from the last, and proceed as before. If your silk gives out, finish your knot and then run your knotted silk through both the material and the end of the old silk left by running from one knot to the other.

Turks around the Bosporus amuse themselves by playing pitch and catch with the hungry fish hawks. They throw high in the air a lump of raw meat, and the hawks pounce upon the meat before it strikes the ground, and make away with it to the little ones.

The average per capita income of the Japanese is smaller than that of any other people belonging to the family of great powers. Next to Italy, Japan is the most heavily taxed of nations. The Japanese is taxed to the extent of 1 yen 20 sen upon every 10 yen of his income, a proportion exceeded only by Italy, which taxes 1 yen 22 sen upon every 10 yen of the income of its subjects.

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

LIFE OF JOHN, THE BAPTIST INTERESTINGLY TOLD IN STORY

Dramatic Reciatls Given This Week by a Bible Scholar and Elocutionist.

Interesting and helpful in the reading and full understanding of the bible stories and the dramatic recitals which Prof. Harry Trumbull Sutton, a noted bible student and elocutionist, is giving this week at the First M. E. church, under the auspices of the city Ministerial association. The first recital was given Sunday afternoon to a large audience, the story exemplified being that of John, the Baptist, and it was told in a manner that held his audience interested throughout.

In commencing he gave a brief account of the condition of affairs at the time John, the Baptist, lived, a time of national poverty, national slavery, national loss of religion—a fearful state of things. John appeared upon the scene as an earnest patriot, an orator of reform, yearning for the betterment of his people. He pictured him as a living character, following him in his dramatic life to his dramatic death and the carrying to Herrod of his bloody head on a platter.

Is the bible an interesting book? Will it hold attention with other books? Prof. Sutton contends that it is and more particularly so when properly studied and the object of his dramatic recitals is to prove it. He holds up its characters as living, breathing men and clothes the bible stories with wonderful interest. He is an orator, an elocutionist of rare ability, and his recitals should be heard by all Sunday school teachers and other church workers. There is no admission charged to his recitals.

The theme of the recital of Prof. Sutton tonight will be the first chapter of Timothy. Tomorrow night he will give the story of Paul on Mars hill before Agrappa. His recitals continue each evening during the week, except Saturday.

COMMENDS HIS RECITALS.

President E. M. Todd Speaks of Prof. Sutton's Work.

Rev. E. M. Todd, the president of the City Ministerial association, sends the Sentinel the following card for publication:

"I feel that in calling the attention of the church people of the city to the dramatic bible recitals now being given at the First Methodist church by Mr. Harry Trumbull Sutton, I shall be rendering them a real service. Mr. Sutton's work is entertaining, cultural, vital in a very high degree. The bible is literarture—great literarture—and will read. Mr. Sutton demonstrates this. His interpretations make it clear that the combination of "dramatic' with bible, in his announcements is not fiction, but represents a very real fact.

"It is to be hoped that our citizens will discover Mr. Sutton before he is gone. His readings each night this week, moreover, furnish an excellent opportunity for that inter-church fellowship so desirable as a preparation for our common tasks this autumn and winter.

Former Fort Wayne Pastor Will Locate in California.

Several days ago the Sentinel mentioned the fact that Rev. C. A. Rowand, formerly pastor of the First Methodist church in this city, had decided, on account of the health of his son, which is precarious, to give up his charge at Marion, Ind., and go to Colorado with the boy in the hope that the climate would be beneficial. Rev. Rowand has written friends that the Colorado climate is not of the character that would work the desired benefit and that he would locate in southern California. Rev. Rowand will take a pulpit charge in that part of California. He has been given a transfer from this conference. The Marion church is being temporarily filled by Dr. Henry W. Bennett. No regular appointment has yet been made.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

SENTENCE CINCHED BY BICYCLE THEFT

Added Crime Led to Refusal of Suspension of Sentence for Horse Stealing.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 26.—Phillip Rash and Clinton Death, the two young men from near Bobo, who were charged with the theft of two bicycles, and whose trial took place in the circuit court here, were acquitted by the jury, their trial ending quite abruptly.

The chief witnesses against the two youths were John Durbin and Ben Lett, who had recently pleaded guilty to horse stealing. After the court had heard the testimony he promptly ordered the jury to return a verdict for the defendants, which they did, and the boys were discharged.

It developed in the testimony that Durbin and Lett were the guilty parties in the stealing of the bicycles, and this led to the acquittal of Rash and Death.

Durbin and Lett, it will be remembered, are the two young fellows who stole a team of horses from Farmer Schwartz near Berne a few months ago and took them to Fort Wayne and sold them. The criminal cases against them had resulted in their sentence to the Jeffersonville prison.

But a petition signed by 500 citizens from the locality in which the lads lived was filed with the court, asking that the sentence be suspended and Judge Merryman had it under consideration. It is believed that he rather favored doing so until the young men testified in the bicycle case, when they gave testimony which almost certainly proved that they had also taken the bicycles.

Then the judge imposed the sentence on Durbin and Lett, which was one to fourteen years in prison, and ordered the sheriff to take them to Jeffersonville. The officers left last evening for the prison with the convicts.

BOY'S FATHER PAYS BACK.

Has Settled for Money Alleged to Have Been Stolen.

Hartford City, Ind., Sept. 26.—William Hunt will make good the $23 alleged to have been taken from the Widow Ross home Friday by his young son, Raymond Hunt, and there will be no official investigation of the theft.

Although Young Hunt has refused to acknowledge his guilt publicly and declares he is innocent, the father will pay Mrs. Ross the amount it is claimed the boy made away with. Payment on certificates of deposit for $240, which also disappeared with the money, has been stopped at the bank and the thief, whoever he is, will not be able to realize on them.

THE WIFE ASKS FOR $12,000 ALIMONY

Says Husband is Worth $25,000, an Habitual Drunkard, and Guilty of Cruelty.

Hartford City, Ind., Sept. 26.—E. C. Atkinson, wealthy retired farmer and well known Hartford City citizen, is the defendant in a suit instituted in the Blackford circuit court by Sarah Atkinson, in which a divorce, $12,000 alimony and the custody of their daughter, Florence, aged 18 years, and $300 annually for her maintenance is demanded.

The complaint sets forth that the couple married February 24, 1881, and separated September 3, 1910. The wife alleges that the husband is an habitual drunkard; that he has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment to the plaintiff and her children, frequently threatening them bodily harm and cursing them. On various occasions, plaintiff avers, she and her children were driven from home by the defendant.

Mr. Atkinson's wealth is approximately estimated at $25,000, and the wife seeks to secure $12,000 together with a divorce, the custody of their daughter and $300 per year for her maintenance.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

General Lew Wallace is at the New Aveline house.

Charley Cromwell is selling lots on the seacoast of Florida for $3 a piece.

John Olds and a party of friends left last night for the northern fishing grounds.

J. W. Pearse's "Judge Hoadley" won first money in the 2:40 trot at Warsaw yesterday.

Parties here are being formed to go hickory nut hunting. The nuts are now ripe and plentiful.

Marriage licenses: William Van Horn and Martha Whitmore; Diedrich Politz and Doretta Foellinger.

John C. Maier has a pet snake and the trained reptile contents itself under a glass case at the county clerk's office.

The Fort Wayne postoffice refuses to sell postal cards in large quantities to any one person on account of the shortage.

Waterworks Inspector Iten is taking out the old wooden boxes of the water mains on the street corners and replacing them with iron ones.

There is a flutter in political circles today and the reason for the unusual activity is that Congressman Robert Lowry has asked Col. Tom Sullivan to hand in his resignation as transfer agent at the south depot. His successor is to be ex-Councilman Abraham Wolf.

Hon. Hugh McCulloch writes that he is willing to relinquish his claim to the old Broadway cemetery, that the city may convert it into a public park. He has so written his son, Hon. Charles McCulloch, and The Sentinel believes its fellow-townsman will shortly set an example worthy of emulation. The spot will be fixed up prettily and styled "McCulloch Park."

Mr. Frank Mensch, of the Adams Express company, has been appointed a mail carrier to take effect October 1. Mr. Mensch is a brother of ex-Mail Carrier Mensch. Frank, however, has been a lifelong, staunch democrat, and almost every merchant in the city signed a paper asking Mr. Kaough to appoint him. He has a thorough knowledge of the city and is much of a gentleman, trustworthy and honorable.

Society

A gathering of intimate friends of Miss Elinor Bond, a bride-to-be of the week, at the home of Mrs. Nellie Fee this afternoon, was in response to an invitation to play bridge from Mrs. Fee's daughter, Mrs. Samuel B. Rohrer, of Topeka, Kan., who arrived here today for the express purpose of attending the Miller-Bond wedding. The guests included the members of the Embroidery club, a social organization of several seasons, which was responsible for the planning and execution of the Assembly dances. Both Mrs. Rohrer and Miss Bond have been associated with this club since it started and the gathering this afternoon with several brides and other young women who are to be married within a few months, was a particularly happy occasion. The game of bridge was not played with quite the seriousness that is its usual accompaniment, though the beautiful gifts for the coming bride and the winner of the best score were tempting enough to make everyone play as well as she could. A quantity of salvia brightened the rooms and refreshments were served in an attractive manner. Aside from the Embroidery club members Mrs. Rohrer invited Mrs. Walter Barrett, Mrs. Frank Bohn, Mrs. Arthur Bland, Miss Edna Reuss and Mrs. Esther McDonald, of New York.

An informal gathering of friends last Friday at the home of Mrs. J. F. Vichert was tinged with sadness in spite of the pleasant aspect of the reception, which was for the purpose of bidding Mrs. J. B. Pellens a good-by as she leaves this week for the far west to live. In the work of the Baptist church in the Visitinhg Nurse league and in other forms of philanthropic work Mrs. Pellens will be sadly missed, and it was the realization of the absence of Mrs. Pellens' courage and sympathy and her earnest aid that made the ladies who called to meet her at Mrs. Vichert's home feel a regret they were unable to express in words as they extended wishes for many happy years in Washington.

Miss Irma Limecooly, of Hanna street, entertained friends on Friday evening at progressive red letters in which the honors were won by Misses Gladys Greek and Juliet Romary and Messrs. FRENCH AUTOMOBILE COAT

The very stunning polo and automobile coats worn at Trouville have been built of a new coat fabric—ratine—which is as light and soft as thistledown and as warm as an army blanket. This smart automobile coat is of tobacco brown ratine, with Oriental embroidery in shades of red, orange, golden brown and dull blue on the shoulder, the brilliant tones of the embroidery being subdued by strappings of dark brown velvet. The buttons are steel, set in ebony rims, a tab of the dark velvet throwing each button into ornamental relief. This coat is by Marshall Armand.

How Hair Can Be Made Pliable After Shampoo

Regains Its Softness if Treated With Tonic Immediately After Washing.

Hair, always unmanageable directly after shampooing, will more quickly become pliable if it is treated with tonic immediately after washing, the process of which latter I told in a special article yesterday.

Owing to the fact that soap and water always serve to neutralize oils of the scalp, their place must be supplied immediately with a substitute, and, according to the original condition of the scalp, the tonic must be chosen. Even a head which is very moist naturally requires a little oil after a bath. There should not be enough grease to have a permanent effect, but one that will remain only for a couple of days.

One I like for this purpose is made from one ounce of cologne and one-eighth of an ounce of castor oil. For a scalp that is naturally too dry and therefore more than usually parched after washing, a pomade is made from three ounces of beef marrow, one ounce of balsam of Peru and oil of sweet almonds, nine grains of alcoholic tincture of cantharides, one-half dram of rectified spirits, three drops each of oils of mace and cinnamon and two drops of oil of cloves. The oils are put into the spirits. The marrow is melted in a cup set into boiling water, and strained as it liquifies. The balsam is added to the spirits and the oil is put with the marrow while the latter is still liquid. Before the combination hardens, but after it begins to cool a little, the spirits are mingled with the fats. When cool this is pomade.

The manner of applying this and any other tonic does not varry save that a liquid must be put on with a brush or sponge, while a paste goes best from the finger tips.

The work consists of dividing the hair, placing one-half out of the way. That portion of the scalp first to be treated is cleared by making another part in the hair, and the line thus exposed is covered with the tonic. Another division not more than an inch from the last is again made, and the line also treated, the divisions and applications being repeated until one-half of the scalp has been covered. The other half is then similarly gone over, afer which the head should be gently massaged. When the work is done slowly and carefully, as suggested, the long hair will never become greasy, no matter how sticky the application may be. Tonics are meant not for the hair, but for the scalp, so that there is no object in covering the locks themselves.

RAILWAY MEN PLAN A MERGER FOR POLITICS

All Brotherhoods to Unite for Non-Partisan Voting in Own Interests.

New York, Sept. 26.—For the first time in the history of railway unions members and delegates representing 308,000 men of the four great divisions of railway employes in the east have voted unanimously to take concerted action in national and state politics. This course was mapped out at a large meeting here yesterday.

"The proper place to settle questions affecting labor is at the ballot box," said Warren S. Stone, of Cleveland, O., grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "Whatever your political affiliations, do not let party lines blind you to your true interest or prevent you from doing what you think is best and right.

Principles Rather Than Party.

"See that the men you vote for stand for the right principles, regardless of party, and support these men who meet the requirements, and you will not only be doing the best thing for yourselves but for the public.

"This is not a political move at all, as is generally understood, but a move to get away from the old lines of partisan politics."

In pursuance of this plan the meeting voted to send out a series of eight questions to state and national candidates, particularly to candidates for the legislatures and house of representatives, asking for a definition of attitude on the universal adoption of safety appliances, and an employers' liability law—where such does not already exist—company pensions for superannuated employes, hours of labor, and other matters of kindred interest.

Three Hundred at Meeting.

This catechism will be drafted by W. G. Lee, of Cleveland, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and A. B. Garretson, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., president of the Order of Railway Conductors, and by them distributed to all executive officers of sub-ordinate unions and locals.

There were 3,000 members and delegates at the meeting, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors.

They met by announcement to define their attitude toward the application of railways now before the interstate commerce commission for permission to increase rates, and, as had been expected, they passed resolutions favoring an increase.

It was decided that "this representative meeting of the railway brotherhoods request our chief executive to appear before the interstate commerce commission during the pending rate hearing, state our case, and support the proposals to reasonably increase the existing rates."

Engineers' Attitude Typifies Others.

The legislative board of the Brotherhood of Engineers of Pennsylvania, representing 10,000 engineers, which recently concluded sessions in Harrisburg, Pa., attended the meeting in a body and reported resolutions which it was claimed typified the attitude on the rate question of railway employes in general, as expressed in many other scattered resolutions.

They find that "the various railway companies by whom our members are employed * * * have recently enormously increased their operating expenses and fixed charges, by reason of a general increase in wages and the increased cost of material and the incessant demand of the public for improved facilities and service."

In a letter to M. Flannery, chairman of the executive committee of the engineers at Buffalo, Chief Stone expresses himself in thorough sympathy with the movement.

"One thing is sure," he writes, "if the railroads are to continue to exist, some way must be found to meet the constantly increasing demands on their gross earnings."

PAYNE LAW SHOWS REVISION WAS DOWNWARD

Bureau of Statistics Has a Showing to Prove the Claim.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The operations of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law for one years show that the average ad valorem rate of duty paid on imports to all classes was 1.66 per cent. lower than under the Dingley law, which was in force for the previous year. The comparison was made by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor for the years ended June 30, 1909 and 1910.

The recent revision of the tariff has been the subject of so much dissension in political circles that these figures are expected to attract wide attention. The comparison deals with the eleven great groups of imports—lumber, sugar, fruits and nuts, liquors, chemicals, silk manufactures, cotton manufactures, iron and steel, tobacco, wool and manufactures and fibres and manufactures—which aggregate about two-thirds of the total dutiable imports into the United States.

It is demonstrated by the comparison that more than $100,000,000 worth of goooods were imported in 1910 under the new law in excess of the total in 1909, under the Dingley law; that the revenues in the last year exceeded those of 1909 by about $30,000,000 and that the average ad valorem rate of duty paid was only 41.49, as compared with 43.15 under the old law.

IN THE VINEYARD.

I said: "I am tired of my labors, of putting up hay in the sun; I'm weary of watching my neighbors, whose life is one long round of fun. I'm weary of sowing and reaping, as busy as five hundred bees, while others are playing or sleeping in languid and insolent ease. I'm tired of the constant endeavor for victories tawdry to see; I long for the rest that is ever a thing in the distance for me." Then the Wise Man, he tightened his gallus and parted his whiskers and said: "You live in that big wooden palace that's painted buff cochin and red? Your stand-off is good with the grocer, your larder is amply supplied? And yet you are loaded with woe, sir? You give me three pains in the side! You're big and you're husky and healthy—I think it the rankest of shames that you should desire to be wealthy, and sit and crochet with the dames. A man with the thews of a bison should glory in doing his chores, should ask nothing better in his'n, than wrestling around out of doors! Oh, sail in and toil, never shirking, and cut out your visions of peif; the pleasure of life is in working, and work's in a class by itself!"—Walt Mason in Hampton's Magazine for October.

CLUB SLOW ON LOEB BECAUSE OF RACE PREJUDICE

New York, Sept. 26.—Political and social firends of William Loeb, jr., especially those in the Union League club, are wondering why his application for membership, duly seconded by influential members of the club, has so long remained unacted upon.

Mr. Loeb has jumped into political prominence in recent years. He is now numbered among the big national republican politicians. When friends urged him to file an application for membership in the Union League club it was naturally expected, on account of Mr. Loeb's prominence, that at the first meeting of the committee on admissions the application would be acted upon, and, of course, Mr. Loeb would be admitted to membership.

Instead of that, the committee has met twice since the application was filed and Mr. Loeb has had no notice of action. But for the persistence of his friends, Mr. Loeb would have withdrawn his application on account of the unexplained delay.

Personal friends of Mr. Loeb say he never was anxious to be a member of the Union League club and that he merely permitted well meaning friends in the club to propose him.

Protest on Racial Grounds.

The reason no action has been taken on Mr. Loeb's application is due to the protest of some of the members of the club against admitting Mr. Loeb as a member. They say the club is a social as well as a political body and the basis of their objection is said to be the fact that Mr. Loeb is a Jew. He has many friends in the club who will fight the matter, contending that this is not a fair basis for opposing him.

The Union League club, while the most prominent republican club in the country, has often been torn by dissensions. It begins to look now as if there may be another fight in its ranks. Collector of the Port Bridwell, who retired from office in 1902, was an applicant for membership in the Union League club. Six months after his name had been proposed and no action had been taken his name suddenly disappeared from the posted list of applicants. It was understood at the time that he had withdrawn his application, but no definite statement was ever made.

The biggest fight in the history of the Union League club was over a member of the Seligman family, famous in Wall street.

Seligman Quits in Wrath.

One of the elder Seligmans, who had been prominent in finance and politics and who was considered one of the most influential members of the club, resigned outright on account of the action of one of its committees.

INCLINE TO MURDER THEORY.

Body of Well Known Kentucky Man Found in Water.

Newport, Ky., Sept. 25.—A body badly decomposed but later identified as that of Henry Remme, overseer of the poor of this city and well known politically through Kentucky, was found floating in the Licking river near Decoursey, Ky., five miles from here today.

Remme disappeared last Wednesday, but owing to his habit of taking prolonged trips through the state nothing was thought of it until Saturday, when his aged mother notified the police.

The suicide theory is not considered in the slightest by the policec. The murder theory has not been openly advanced, yet the actions of the police are clouded in mystery.

CHEESE WEIGHS TWO TONS.

The big cheese is here. It arrived on a flat car and is now resting in comfort in a cold storage warehouse on the north side.

The big cheese, the largest ever made, weighs more than two tons, and it required all the milk produced in one day by more than 500 cows to make the curd for it. The exact quantity of milk used was 40,282 pounds, and seven expert cheesemakers were engaged in the task of constructing the cheese. It cost $1,400. N. Simons, of Appleton, Wis., is the man who had the contract for producing the record-breaking cheese, and his sole purpose was to place it on exhibition at the fifth annual national dairy show.—Chicago correspondent New York World.

WIFE AND BABE KILLED.

Cleveland Physician Backs His Auto Into Electric Car.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 26.—Backing his automobile across a country road in an attempt to reach a private driveway, Dr. Morris D. Steep, a prominent Cleveland surgeon, drove the machine directly before a speeding electric freight car late yesterday. The machine was hurled high into the air, and in a moment the bodies of Mrs. Steep and her two small children lay beside the conconscious form of the doctor.

Death came in a few moments to the woman and the little ones, Morris, aged 8, and an infant daughter. Dr. Steep was removed to a hospital, where it was found that he had three fractured ribs and internal injuries.

Dr. Steep has been prominent in Ohio surgery for the past fifteen years and is a lecturer on surgery at Western Reserve Medical college. Mrs. Steep figured prominently in Cleveland society.

Dr. C. U. Wade Enters on His Work for DePauw University.

Dr. C. U. Wade, formerly presiding elder of this city, later pastor of the Methodist church at Logansport, will move his family to Greencastle, Ind., having accepted the position of endowment secretary for the DePauw university. The position is an important one since the endowment board is at work on the big project of raising $400,000 for the endowment fund between now and the last of next year. If the university raises that amount next year John D. Rockefeller, through the general board of education, will donate $100,000 to the endowment of the DePauw university.

SOMETHING THAT NATURE INTENDED

IT TOOK TWENTY YEARS TO MAKE THE DISCOVERY.

Nature undoubtedly intended the scientist in question to be a healer of the sick, through the medium of the wonderful discovery he made. After experimenting with many combinations of roots and herbs since early manhood, he at last discovered the wonderful Root Juice, to which hundreds are now indebted for the recovery of their health, after having suffered for years with chronic stomach, liver or kidney trouble. While Root Juice is (comparatively speaking) a new remedy, it represents many years of hard study and numerous experiments, and is the medical masterpiece of a man who has studied the merits of various roots and herbs for twenty years, and is rapidly covering the country with grateful people, who will always be thankful to Root Juice for the restoration of their health. If you are suffering with stomach, liver, kidney or bowel trouble, you should go to Bradley Bros.' drug store, and they will tell you all about the many wonderful cures Root Juice has made in this locality.

Catholic Church to Lift Marriage Ban for Unattractive Girls.

Denver, Sept. 26.—"From now on, under the new matrimonial laws of the church, if a couple comes to us to be married and one is a non-Catholic and refuses to take instructions in the Catholic faith, they cannot be married. If they threaten us that they will be married by a justice of the peace or a minister we will tell them to go to the devil, as that is the way they are headed. But if a couple comes to us and the girl is a Catholic, unattractive, 25 or 26 years old, and looks as if it is her first and last chance, then we will see that she obtains a dispensation to be married."

Thus spoke Father Hugh L. McMenamin, pastor of the Immaculate Conception church, when explaining on behalf of Bishop N. C. Matz the new matrimonial laws of the Catholic church.

"If you have a church wedding," he continued, "and want to have music, you must not ask or insist upon some of your friends coming in and singing 'The Sweetest Story Ever Told,' or some other sentimental song. The regular music for a nuptial mass must be sung."

BESIEGED BY WORKMEN.

Contractors on Railway Work Had Failed to Pay.

Indianapolis, Sept. 26.—Five officials of the Nugent Construction company, of Louisville, Ky., doing work on the Vandalia railroad near West Newton, were held prisoners in their cottage by a band of armed Italian workmen, until rescued early yesterday morning by Sheriff Woessner and a posse of deputies, who went to the scene in automobiles.

According to the interpreter for the laborers, who told his story to the sheriff, the Italians had been discharged last week and had been promised their wages for Saturday. The pay envelope, he said, was short and the men merely were demanding all of the money owing to them. When this was not forthcoming, they armed themselves and surrounded the home of the officials. The sheriff acted as arbitrator, and, after securing for the Italians a written order for their pay, the laborers put out their camp fires, which surrounded the home of the officers, and went away.

LAID LOW BY THUNDERBOLT.

Lexington, Tenn., Sept. 25.—Lightning struck a tree under which a number of people, delegates to the Beech River Baptist association, had taken refuge from a rainstorm at noon yesterday. Every person under the tree was thrown to the ground. John Shackelford was instantly killed, many of his bones being shattered. Green Scott and Wm. Smith were seriously shocked and may die. The others were not badly hurt. Panic prevailed, women screamed and several fainted.

BURKE WANTS PIECE IN PAPER WITH THANKS

Likes the Town and Everybody in It—Not Likely to Come Back.

"Put a piece in the paper tomorrow thanking the people here for me. You know what I mean. I like the town and I have met some swell people here and they have treated me dandy. They supported the ball team something great and I'm thankful and, honestly, I'd like to be back here. Fix up a nice little piece for me and the other players."

These were the parting words of James Thomas Burke, some times called Jimmy, who left last night for his home in St. Louis. Burke was really grateful to the public. He had better support than he expected, but no better than he and his club deserved. He made friends here and so did his players and there has never been as satisfactory a base ball season here in the history of the Central league.

Rigid discipline insured the best condition of players and the public fully appreciated it by attending the games in sufficient numbers to make the season profitable and to mark Fort Wayne as the leading city in point of attendance.

The players dispersed during the day.

Burke will take up the picture show business in St. Louis.

Blount went to Youngstown and to his home at Deerfield, Ohio.

Charlie Alberts will spend the winter in Fort Wayne.

Eddie Justice and his wife and baby went to Columbus, Ohio.

Frank McDermott will go to Philadelphia as soon as he can break away from certain ties here.

Walter Miller and Will Robertson will stick around a few days then go to Gas City, Ind., and Cooshocton, O., respectively.

Harry Corns went to Boone, Iowa, to join Mrs. Corns and will then go to Cambridge, Neb.

Frankie Donahue will winter at that dear old Springfield, Ohio.

Bill Bailey will take up winter quarters at McDonald, Pa., wherever that may be.

Ed Pfeffer will wait orders from the St. Louis Americans at Champaign, Ill.

Delmer Dewaine Young, Mrs. Young and the two little Youngs will be at Cleveland all winter.

Carl Manda's winter quarters will be at Hutchison, Kan.

Knights of Columbus Remember One of Members.

After the game yesterday afternoon a committee from the local branch of the Knights of Columbus presented Frank Donahue with an emblem of the order. The presentation speech was made by Frank Voirol and Donahue replied in words as follows, to wit: "Gentlemen, nothing like this ever happened in my family before and I don't know what to say, but I thank you."

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for twenty-five cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest and much cheaper. Sold by all dealers.

The Time to Begin Is Now

Summer togs are now to be relegated to the dark recesses of the closet. The fall season is here. It is the time to think of cool weather underwear, seasonable shirts and ties, and other apparel. For years the House of Bohne has studied the needs of men and is the store to go to for satisfaction.

POOR SUPPORT BEAT ROBBINS IN THE BLOW-OFF

One Clean Hit All the Leaguers Got—Big Pfeffer in Form.

If John Vincent Robbins, alias Vince, had had as good support as big Jeff Pfeffer in the Fort Wayne-Shamrock blow-off the first nine innings would have gone into history without a run of any sort tabbed, but at that the portsider pitched some great ball against Jimmy Burke's second-placers and one clean smash and two scratches represented the total output of the Central leaguers.

In the meantime Mr. Pfeffer was dealing out the same line of hurling that put him up as fast company possibility and the Shamrocks could not connect and one bingle and a punk infield bounder that went into the hit column on account of some queer fielding were all he allowed in the way of safe clouts.

Mr. Weatherman was not in a good humor. His ugly mood cut the attendance half in two as he was threatening all day and did not smile until after the gate receipts had been counted and split.

An hour and ten minutes was consumed in playing off the contest and the exhibition was a good one from the spectators' standpoint as it was full of good fielding features. Curt Elston, just back from Providence, where his club finished last, matriculated as an umpire and he did a neat job of it and there was only one mild protest which was entered by Willie Robertson, of Coshocton, O., when a strike was called on a ball that was only three feet above the plate and which he insisted was below his knees. Elston did not count on the extra elevation.

George Henline had one of the fingers on his right hand split in the first inning and had to retire. Jack Smith went behind the bat after an absence of two years and Tod Seitz succeeded him at first base. This weakened the Shamrocks very materially.

For three innings Robbins mowed down the leaguers in order and the break did not come until the fourth when Blount dumped the ball in front of the plate and "Poneto" Smith took a wild heave at first. This was followed by Corns' sacrifice and McDermott and Blount collaborated in a hit and run affair in which the Welsh speed merchant scored from second on an infield out. If Long had played for the plate the run would not have been tabbed. Houlihan hooted Lemon's grounder in the eighth and when Bailey bunted Robbins fooled the ball. Robertson dumped one in front of the plate and Smith retrieved in plenty of time to have caught him at first, but Seitz came in on the bunt and Houlihan raced to second and the formality of covering first for the throw was omitted.

With three on and none down the game looked good for a slaughter but Pfeffer shot one at Robbins who cut Lemon off at the plate and then Smith doubled the big pitcher at first. Blount hit to right for the only clean hit of the game and Bailey counted, but Robertson was chopped off at the plate on Centlivre's great throw. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Blount featured the game with a catch of Centlivre's fly in the seventh that cut off a run.

Grover Reddin had a dandy day in the field. He picked off a couple of foul flies and covered a lot of ground.

Eddie Justice had a sore arm and Lemon played short. He had two chances.

Young picked off a foul fly for Farrell in the fifth that marked a good piece of fielding.

Fans were generous with their applause and sympathy was pretty evenly divided.

Robbins struck Young out twice.

Manda robbed Long of a hit in the ninth when he picked off his grounder back of second.

The Shamrocks showed well under fire. Instead of going to pieces with the bases full in the eighth and none down they tightened up and made a brilliant finish.

SCHEME TO CLASSIFY BOWLERS TO BE TAKEN UP

Canadian Rule Has Been Asked for and May Be Applied Here.

Montreal bowlers have devised a scheme by which the pin men of the city are classified and divided among the teams that compose a big city league operated under the leading athletic association of the city and William McKay, owner of the Brunswick alleys, has written for the details with a view of applying the method here if the proper changes can be brought about.

This classification idea was developed in Canada with a view of equalizing the playing strength of the teams and to keep alive the interest in the championship race throughout the entire season. Here interest has lagged every season because one or two of the teams have gotten away to a good lead and maintained it to the end of the year and as the clubs lower down in the standing realized they had no chance to win they have dropped out one by one.

According to the Montreal Star the sport there is carried on for the sport that is in the game and the division of prizes is left as a secondary consideration. This places the game on a better basis and runs out the players who are in it solely for a division of the spoils.

A meeting of the Brunswick bowlers has been called for Wednesday night by President George W. Stand and at that time the captains are asked to be present with the names of the members of their clubs. This is desired for the reason that it is not known whether all of the clubs have been filled and until this is known the schedule can not be formulated. There are a number of bowlers who have applied for places on the team and who have not been assigned and some of the clubs have not been filled out.

A full attendance will relieve the situation and enable the league to be ready for the start on next Monday night. All bowlers will be welcome, as there are places for all the beginners, as well as the most experienced, and when the tournament arrangements are taken up the ordinary bowlers will have just as good a chance as the old timers as it is hoped the new classification scheme will open up a means of eradicating the difficulty experienced in properly handicapping the best bowlers.

The first Brunswick match of the season has been arranged for this evening, when the men that will represent the Hof Brau and Centlivre teams will take a little practice tilt.

CAME BACK STEERAGE.

Boston, Sept. 26.—William J. Joseph, a wealthy resident of Kansas City, Mo., accompanied by several members of his family, had to make the trip from Glasgow to Boston in the steerage of the steamer Parisian because cabin accommodations could not be secured on any steamer for America from British ports before November. W. J. Holmes, a Pittsburg merchant, who came in the second cabin of the Parisian, declared that there were thousands of American tourists in Europe unable to get home because of their inability to secure passage within the next three or four weeks.

LOCAL FIGHTER HAS BIG TASK WITH REDMOND

Jack Redmond, the Milwaukee lightweight boxer, will meet Young Holtzhauer, a Fort Wayne youth, before the Magic City A. A. of Muncie, tomorrow night. The match will be at 135 pounds, and Holzhauer, who weighs closer to the welterweight mark than the lightweight figure, will have to take off some pounds. The boy with the sauerkraut name is looked upon to give Redmond, a hard battle, although Redmond has done some wonderful work in the ring of late. He had the better of Ad Wolgast in a ten-round contest at Milwaukee several months ago when the champion injured his arm.

Al Kaufman, California's heavyweight aspirant for Jack Johnson's title, who recently bested the much-boosted Bill Lang, will meet Al Kubiak, the Michigan fighter, in a six-round bout before the Armory Athletic club of Baltimore tonight. Billy Delaney, the veteran trainer who brought Jeffries out, is manager of Kaufman. He says the Californian will beat Kubiak decisively and that he will startle the fight fans of the country by the quick way that he will dispose of his Michigan opponent. However, Kubiak has not done much to distinguish himself as being even a second rater, and in the battle tonight the Californian has all to lose and nothing to gain.

Fight enthusiasts are looking forward with much interest to the ten-round bout between Packey McFarland, the Chicago lightweight, and Fighting Dick Hyland. They will box at the Fairmont Athletic club, New York, tomorrow night. McFarland has grown considerably and it has required much road work and boxing to bring him down to 135 pounds, at which weight he will fight. Hyland has been training over the hills at Staten Island and is said to be faster than he ever was.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Jack Coombs was scored on in the ninth inning of the game between the Athletics and the White Sox yesterday and the run was the first that had been made on him in fifty-three innings. He allowed five hits during the game, which went to Philadelphia. Walsh was hit nine times. Coombs went in the second game, but gave way to Atkins. The Sox took the second. Lange was hit twice in five innings.

Laroy beat Minneapolis in the closing game of the American league season at St. Paul. The Millers won 107 games and lost 61 and the record is the most remarkable in the history of the organization. Columbus won the pennant in 1905 with 100 victories. In the closing game the champions got to Lillvelt in the two first innings and sewed up the battle.

Pitcher Fred Cooke, formerly of Grand Rapids, was severely cut on the heel in the ninth inning of the first game at Toledo by Harry Hinchman's spikes. Columbus and Toledo split a double bill.

Powell and Brandon were both hit hard in the game between Kansas City and Milwaukee. Gilligan was also bumped hard, but the Brewers managed to pull out with a victory.

Jack Hendricks' Denver team closed the season on the home grounds with a victory over Topeka.

John Ganzel's Rochester team won its second pennant in the Eastern league and won as many games as Providence lost and lost as many as Providence won.

The use of George Tieman, Cy Bowen, Cleon Webb and Edgar Doty by Kalamazoo the last of the season has been protested by Lansing. The two clubs are tied for first place in the Southern Michigan league.

Wood was hit thirteen times by Detroit in the game against Boston and the Tigers won.

John Somerlott got a hit in each of the games he played with Washington and stole a base in the second game.

MURPHY HOLDING UP OPENING OF BIG BATTLES

President Ban Johnson Fears No Sunday Game Will Be Permitted.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—"There will be no Sunday game during the world's series unless President Murphy of the Cubs agrees to wind up the schedule for his club before October 15. I understand President Robinson of the St. Louis Nationals has made a fair proposition to Mr. Murphy regarding the early completion of the remaining games booked between these clubs and from all reports the Chicago club alone is holding out against not only the best interests of the game, but hundreds of thousands of baseball fans."

In the above language President B. B. Johnson of the American league laid down the law as regards the forthcoming clash for the world's championship. And the chief of the younger circuit comes out flat-footed with the assertion that Murphy must concede a point if Chicago is to have a peek at the championship machines on Sunday, October 16, in the event the flip of a coin favors the local management.

"Interest in the major league races is bound to slump with the approach of cold weather," continued President Johnson, "and it is absolutely essential that the league seasons close before the middle of October. Cold weather already has cut in on the sport and in order to make this series for the highest honors in baseball the huge success it should be the club owners should arrange their games so that the pennant winning clubs might meet under favorable weather conditions.

It would be a simple matter for Mr. Murphy to arrange double-headers between St. Louis and Chicago to permit of the closing of the National league season by October 13 at the latest.

Five games are scheduled between the two clubs to be played on October 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 15. No game is listed for October 14. By arranging for double-headers on October 9 and 10 four of these six games might easily be cleared up. Then the Cubs could finish their season October 12 and prepare at their leisure for the opening game of the world's series. In the event the flip of the coin favors Philadelphia the Chicago club could start east on the night of October 12, rest up in Philadelphia on October 13 and open the championship games on October 14.

This way the Philadelphia park would be the scene of games October 14 and 15 and a fast train if one is secured, would bear the clubs to Chicago in time for the Sunday game. If the flip of the coin favors Chicago for the opening games the advantage will be even better for the Chicago club, according to President Johnson.

TIDBITS OF SPORTING NEWS

Announcement has been made that Del Howard will be retained as manager at Louisville next season. This eliminates Jimmy Burke from the running if the announcement is authentic.

The hero of Canton is not "Red" Nelson after all. The fellow who walloped the ball and took the tiers over with the pennant is no other than our old friend Horazdoviski. His real name was discovered after he went to the big league.

Grand Rapids Press: A likable fellow and a base ball wiseacre, Eddie Coffey will be among those who will not be back in Grand Rapids next season. Edward and Owner Annis' feelings toward each other were hardly printable during the last few weeks of the season. Coffey had one of the poorest years he ever passed in the Central league.

Bill Phillips is out with the announcement that he has not quit the management of the Wheeling team. He has had no meeting with the directors and does not know what he will do.

Harry Walchonce led the South Bend club at bat. He hits .315 for the season. Max Carnarius stole 36 bases and hit .293. Pat Lindsay lost seven games and won twenty-five and was not drafted or sold.

Grand Rapids wants a local owner next season, but is not able to suggest a man who will lose $6,000 in a year and make as little fuss about it as Bert Annis did.

Catcher Rohrer has been purchased by the Dayton team from the White Sox for next season. The Vets are getting into line early for a winner in 1911.

None of the Dayton players hit as high as .300. Ray Spencer led the list with .297.

Manager Punch Knoll has started on a hunting trip down the Ohio river that will eventually close at Evansville, where he will spend the season.

George Stalling failed to show that Hal Chase had been disloyal to the New York Americans and the first baseman has been cleared of the charge.

Christy Mathewson, of the Giants, says the Athletics will beat the Cubs in the coming battle for the world's championship. He says: "The Athletics will win. The 1910 series will be a give-and-take struggle in which I pick the Athletics because of their strength in the box."

NURSE CONFESSES A KNOWLEDGE OF CRIME

Death of San Francisco Girl in Doctor's Hands Told.

San Francisco, Sept. 26.—After two days and nights of silence, Marie Messerschmidt, the nurse arrested in connection with the death of Eva Swan, following the finding of the girl's body beneath the cement flooring of the basement of a vacant house, has confessed to the police that she had knowledge of the operation performed by Dr. James Grant upon Miss Swan and that she attended the girl after the operation. The confession states that "Robert Thompson, known as Dr. Grant, packed the girl's body into a trunk, first cutting off the legs at the ankles; that Grant discussed the burial of the body with the nurse and spent two nights at the house where the body was found."

Physician and Young Man Arrested.

Dr. Grant was taken into custody with the nurse and later Paul Parker, a former Leland Stanford athlete, who lived in the house where Miss Swan roomed, was taken to the police station and locked up.

The nurse was induced to tell the story by her brother-in-law, August Borman, of Oakland, who visited her at the city prison. He showed her a picture of her dead mother, pleading with her to tell the police everything, impressing upon her that this would be her mother's wish. The young woman fainted and upon recovery became hysterical. When she was quieted she agreed to tell the entire story to detectives.

Following the confession Dr. Grant was led from his cell and brought into the desk sergeant's office, where Miss Messerschmidt was seated. At the sight of his nurse Dr. Grant broke away from the jailer and ran along the prison corridors. He was chased by policemen and forcibly returned to the office. He staggered and almost sank to the floor when he learned of the nurse's collapse.

Parker Called at Hospital.

In her story Miss Messerschmidt said that Paul P. Parker, a young man who had known Miss Swan for eight years, had visited the hospital on three occasions to see the girl, she dying after the operation. The police immediately took Parker into custody. He admitted the visits to the hospital to see Miss Swan, but strongly denied any responsibility for her condition. Later he gave the police a detailed account of his acquaintance with Miss Swan.

Miss Messerschmidt said she was not present at the operation, which was performed, she said, on April 16, at the office of Dr. Grant. Following the operation Miss Swan returned to work at the office where she was employed. She was forced to leave her work on April 20 because of illness and went to Dr. Grant. She was placed in bed in the small hospital ward maintained by the doctor. There she remained for ten days, her condition gradually becoming worse until death came.

According to Miss Messerschmidt the girl died during the night while alone.

BRITISH CONSOLS FALL.

London, Sept. 26.—Consols fell to 80⅛ for the account today. This is the lowest reached in many years. The immediate cause was the rise in the German bank rate and the disinclination of investors to purchase first class British securities. A further fall in the figures for consols is freely predicted.

TUMOR OF YEARS GROWTH

Holly Springs, Miss.—"Words are inadequate for me to express what your wonderful medicines have done for me. The doctors said I had a tumor, and I had an operation, but was soon as bad again as ever. I wrote to you for advice, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you told me to do. I am glad to say that now I look and feel so well that my friends keep asking me what has helped me so much, and I gladly recommend your Vegetable Compound."—MRS. Growth

GERMAN AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK

We feel that we owe our customers an apology for the manner in which we have compelled them for many weeks to transact their banking business amid the dirt, noise and confusion incident to the changes that we have been making in our Banking Room. It will soon be over, however, and we think our increased facilities, and the added room will fully repay every one for the inconvenience that has been experienced.

The growth of the bank has continued right along regardless of the way we have been torn up.

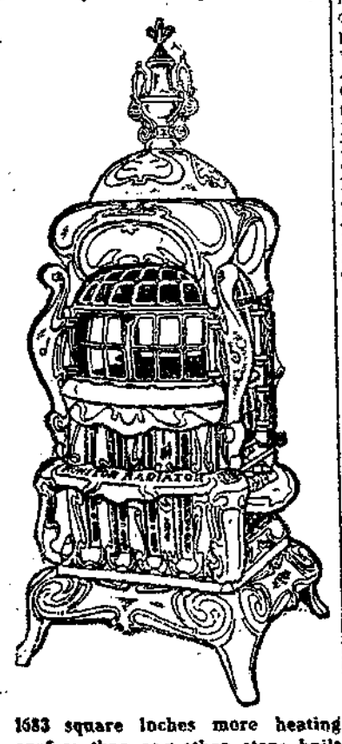
Want a stove that will put all the heat in the house instead of up the chimney?

THE MONITOR RADIATOR produces twice as much heat from the same fuel because it has a long inside draft that makes the fire draw well—and burns up all gases before they are wasted up the chimney.



1683 square inches more heating surface than any other stove built

You can heat your up-stairs rooms by attaching pipes to its patent hot air flue. The patent grate cuts the clinkers and dead ashes from the grate and turns them into the ash pan. Don't need the poker. It will hold fire twenty-four hours without renewing.

DAY AND NIGHT YARD MASTERS

Miller and Malcom to Take Those Offices on the Wabash.

PENNSY'S ANNUAL TRACK INSPECTION

G. L. Peck and Staff to Go Over the Lines Next Week.

Next Saturday John F. Miller will become general yard master of the Wabash at this point, and Charles F. Malcolm will become night yard master, the former succeeding Dennis Hayes, whose resignation had been in the hands of the officials several weeks, and Mr. Malcolm succeeding L. E. Romy, who resigned two weeks ago. Mr. Miller is an experienced railroad man and was once yard master on the Lake Erie and Western, resigning to engage in other business some years ago. Like other railroad men, however, he soon discovered that he liked that work better than other employment and he drifted back into it. He learned telegraphy when a boy and for some time has held the night trick at the keys in the telegraph department at the office at the Wabash depot. Charles Malcom is also an experienced railroad man. For the past two or three years he has been working in the Nickel Plate yards. Previous to that service he was employed as a switchman in the Wabash yards in this city. Mr. Hayes will assume charge of an engine and the switching crew Saturday.

WANT THE NEXT CONVENTION.

Fort Wayne Delegates to Work for 1911 State Meeting.

If the best efforts of about twenty-five delegates can control the matter, the 1911 meeting of the Indiana State Federation of Labor will be held in Fort Wayne. This was the instructions each representative of the local unions received when he was chosen as their delegate and quite a large number of them met Friday evening at the Labor-Times-Herald office to talk the matter over and to organize with that end in view. In the contest they will have only one competitor, Terre Haute, and the Fort Wayne delegation feel that they can get enough support from the cities in the northern and central part of the state to defeat Terre Haute. The 1910 state meeting will be held in Lafayette tomorrow and most of the Fort Wayne delegates will leave for that city tonight and the others early tomorrow morning. In the party which will leave this evening will be J. C. Schwantz, J. C. Werkman, Archibald Stahr, John Daily and Mrs. C. Krider from the American Federation of Labor; H. J. Staub, Carpenters; Mrs. L. D. Redding, Women's Union Label League; Clem O'Rourke, Plumbers; C. E. Krider, Building Trades; J. E. Wolf, Steam Engineers; J. P. Snyder, Cigar Makers; Gus Rogge and H. J. Lechler, Machinists; N. E. Weaver, Blacksmiths, and Gart Shober, H. P. Scherer and L. Schroeder, Musicians. Fort Wayne is entitled to thirty delegates, but it is said that four or five of the unions have not elected representatives.

BACKED INTO A TRAIN.

Auto Driver's Error Nearly Results in Fatality.

One woman was seriously injured and two others slightly hurt Friday at Hammond, when the driver of a large touring car backed the machine into a string of moving cars after getting over the tracks ahead of the engine in safety. The driver of the automobile was Mr. Ogden, the manager of the Graselli Chemical company, South Chicago, and with him were three ladies. When they reached the Nickel Plate railroad, Mr. Ogden failed to see a switch engine which was pulling a string of cars until he was squarely in front of it and then he lost his head. The impetus of the car carried it over the tracks, although the driver had shut off the power and applied the brakes, and it stopped at a safe distance. Hastily looking over the ground, Mr. Ogden turned on the "spark," sprang out of the machine and cranked it. The lever was reversed, however, and as soon as the engine was put in motion, the automobile backed against the string of moving cars, was upset and dragged along a considerable distance with the women under it. One was badly injured and the others were bruised and cut slightly. In another car was a party of South Chicago people, who came to the assistance of Mr. Ogden and the injured lady was taken to her home, where she received surgical attention. Her injuries are not believed to be of a fatal character. No blame is laid at the door of the trainmen.

PENNSY TRACK INSPECTION.

Annual Trip of Higher Officials Next Week.

The annual track inspection trip over the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg by General Manager G. L. Peck and his staff will be made next week. The usual equipment—an observation car that will accommodate twenty-five or thirty people, running ahead of the engine, and the private cars of the officials and sleeping cars for the accommodation of the others—will make up each of the three trains and they will run about ten minutes apart. The party will leave Pittsburg Tuesday morning, October 4, run as far as Upper Sandusky, where they will remain over night, and then continue the trip Wednesday morning, passing through this city about 10 o'clock in the morning. They will spend Wednesday night at Bernice, on the Panhandle, and will complete the trip over the Panhandle lines and the affiliated lines in time for the officials to reach their home Saturday. At the place in which the trains will be parked at night, the grounds will be brilliantly lighted by electric lamps. The trains will not stop in Fort Wayne. In the party will be all of the superintendents, division engineers, trainmasters, road supervisors and others connected with the maintenance of way department.

TWO BRAKEMEN INJURED.

George Rippe and O. W. Miller the Victims.

George Rippe and O. W. Miller, Pennsylvania brakemen, were the victims of accidents Sunday. The former fell from a caboose in the Fort Wayne yards and suffered injury to his back, hips and neck, but they are not of a serious character. He was taken to his home, No. 1111 Wilt street, where he is receiving attention from the company's surgeons. Mr. Miller fell headforemost from a car at Roby, Ind., and sustained a concussion of the brain, which is not of a serious character, however. He was taken to a hospital in Chicago.

CONDUCTOR PAINFULLY HURT.

Conductor Lawrence, on one of the Broadway cars, sustained an injury this morning that will disable him for a while. As he was getting on his car at the Broadway crossing of the Pennsylvania one of his feet caught between the rail and the plank and when he grabbed the handhold as the car moved over the crossing he was thrown down and had one of his arms and a shoulder sprained. The pain threw Lawrence into a faint and when his car was stopped he was placed on it and taken to the office of Dr. A. F. Schulz for surgical attendance and then sent to his home. No bones were broken and Mr. Lawrence will soon be at work again.

HAD A HOUSE WARMING.

Machinist Frank Burns, of the Pennsylvania round house, and his wife, were victims of a surprise party and the recipients of a magnificent electric lamp Saturday night, when about eighteen of his shopmates unexpectedly called upon the couple at their home on Chestnut street. Music and cards followed the greeting and the presentation of the lamp, and the affair proved most enjoyable to host, hostess and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Burns, who were married three or four weeks ago, only recently went to housekeeping, and the affair Saturday night was in shape of a housewarming.

SPENT SUNDAY IN CITY.

General Foreman E. E. Dildine, of the Pennsylvania erecting shop, who has been engaged in inspecting new locomotive work at the American Locomotive works at Pittsburg for several months, spent Sunday in the city. He was accompanied by his wife and children and while in the city they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Orr, of 726 Wildwood avenue. Mr. Dildine expects to complete his work at Pittsburg in November, when he will return to Fort Wayne to resume his regular duties.

VISITING OLD COMRADES.

T. G. Leonard, air brake instructor on the Hocking Valley road, headquarters at Columbus, is combining business and pleasure in Fort Wayne today. He came here to get pointers in air brake matters and is taking advantage of the opportunity to see his friends. Mr. Leonard was air brake instructor of the Wabash up to a few months ago, when he was called to the Hocking Valley.

NEW NAMES ON THE ROLLS.

The Wabash continues to add to its shop force and this morning 11 new employes were distributed among the departments. They were E. A. Gruber, B. E. Soule, P. Peters, Benjamin Wicaro, Omer Huff, Frank Huff, Ernest Schultz, Paul Ferrick, L. W. Winters, Ora C. Woods and Carl Bates. Neil McFadden, a machinists' helper, resigned his place with the shops this morning.

IS MOTIVE POWER SUPT.

In its item concerning M. A. Kinney last Friday, the Sentinel erred as to the position he occupies with the Hocking Valley. Mr. Kinney is the superintendent of motive power, and not the master mechanic. The error was due to a misunderstanding on the part of the writer and not intentional. Mr. Kinney succeeded G. J. DeVilbiss, who was killed in the wreck near Toledo two or three weeks ago.

MUST SEND LESS TELEGRAMS.

Supt. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, has issued a bulletin, instructing agents, yardmasters, operators, trainmen and others in the employ of the company to quit the excessive use of the telegraph department. The yearly report shows a great many messages that could have been forwarded by mail and in others brevity could have been used and saved considerable time.

CHANGE AT THE 'SMITH SHOP.

S. E. East, a laborer at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, has been appointed foreman of the wagon gang, whose duties are to transfer pieces of forgings and raw material from one part of the shop to another. He succeeds Charles H. Zent, who resigned last week. L. W. Winter, a helper in the forge shop, resigned Saturday night.

SENT PARTY TO CALIFORNIA.

Traveling Passenger Agent F. P. Parnin, of the Nickel Plate, was at Findlay last Saturday to get a party of fifteen safely on their way to California over the Nickel Plate route. The party passed through this city on train No. 3 at 4:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

DINING CAR OFF TRACKS.

The rear trucks of the dining car in a Nickel Plate train yesterday afternoon left the rails at Harrison street and bumped along on the ties twenty-five feet before the train stopped, damaging the trucks somewhat. It had to be cut out here and was later taken to Stony Island for repairs.

NEW FREIGHT HOUSE CLERK.

Foreman George Trease, of the Wabash freight house, has a new clerk. H. Goertz took that position this morning. The young man is a son of Theodore Goetz, employed as a trucker at the freight house a number of years.

Marion Whittaker, secretary of the state board of barbers' association of Wisconsin, was the guest of his uncle, William Hannan, of the Pennsylvania, over Sunday.

J. B. Fowler resumed his duties at the Pennsylvania store room office this morning. He was married at Pittsburg last Wednesday and, with his bride, returned to Fort Wayne Sunday.

General Foreman Thomas O. Blythe, of the Bass machine shop, and his family have moved into the pretty and comfortable house at 1318 Stophlet street.

W. E. Roux, who spent a week in Ohio, and J. J. Bryle, who spent a week with his relatives in the northern part of Allen county, resumed their work at the Pennsylvania paint shop this morning.

Architect James M. Hamilton, who had been visiting in the city, returned to his home in Cleveland today. He came to see his mother, Mrs. A. Hamilton, who has been very ill, but is now improving.

J. B. Brown, of the Pennsylvania, went to Pleasant township this afternoon to attend the funeral of his relative. Mrs. Margaret Mitchel, an account of whose death has been published by The Sentinel.

Miss Georgia Loveland, the stenographer, resumed her duties at the store room office of the Wabash this morning after spending several days in Wauseon, O., looking after some private business.

Machinist C. M. Hausbach resumed work at the Wabash shops this morning, after a two weeks' sojourn in Northern Michigan. He visited most of the famous fishing places in Michigan and had excellent luck, but the state law intervened and prevented the big fish fry he intended to give the boys. The law forbids bringing fish out of the state.

CHRONIC ULCERS INDICATE BAD BLOOD

Where the blood is pure any wound or laceration of the flesh heals "by first intention." This is true because nature has provided a constituent to the circulation known as Plasma, which joins and holds the place together until the fibres and tissues can permanently knit and interweave. Whenever the ulcer becomes chronic it is because this healing quality of the blood has been impaired by some impurity in the circulation, and the place remains open, infecting all surrounding flesh, until the character of the circulation is changed. No sore can heal where the blood is bad; because the morbid impurities on which it thrives are constantly deposited into it by the burdened circulation. Cleanse the blood and the sore will heal of its own accord, because then its very source and foundation will have been destroyed. S. S. S. cures Chronic Ulcers of every kind for the one great reason that it thoroughly purifies the blood. It goes into the circulation and removes every particle of infectious or morbid matter, enriches the corpuscles, and assists nature in the formation of the necessary plasmic qualities of this vital fluid. No matter from what source the impurities of the blood came, S. S. S. will remove them. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

There's scarcely a Skirt in the Sale that is not worth, regularly, as high as $10.00. The materials are fine Vigereaux, Panamas, French Serges, Poplins and other splendid quality fabrics in black, navy, brown, cream and greys.

Owing to the fact that it is a sample line, there is a wide diversity of models.

A GREAT SALE OF MATTRESSES ALL THIS WEEK, STARTING TODAY

One day last week we counted the mattresses we had in stock. There were just one hundred of them, taking up, with their cumbersome shape, valuable floor space and room needed for other lines of merchandise. And so we decided upon a great special sale to clear them out speedily, cutting the prices deeply on every one in stock, regardless of make or anything else.

HIGH GRADE MATTRESSES IN THIS SALE

Represented in this collection and sale are the celebrated "Ostermoor" mattresses, regarded as one of the best grades and most hygienic ever made. Then there are new Thermo mattresses, as light as a feather, because they are made of Java floss, hygienic and comfortable. There are also included white curl hair mattresses, which are most sanitary and which will last a lifetime. Other makes include the Lenox, Windsor, Industrial, Jewel and Empire.

NOTE THE GREAT REDUCTIONS IN PRICE FOR THIS SALE

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 26.—Decreasing receipts of wheat in the northwest helped to give a firm tone to the market here today. The steadiness of foreign quotations in the face of declines on this side was unexpected, and formed another bullish element. Furthermore traders in favor of higher prices were disposed to emphasize the idea that the recent shrinkage in values had sufficiently discounted the abundance of supplies in this country. The opening was unchanged to ¼c up with December at 99⅞c to $1.00, the same as the previous close to ⅛c higher. After a reaction to 99¾@99⅞c there was a rise to $1.00⅛@1.00¼.

Expectations of a cold wave strengthened corn. December started ⅛@⅜c to ⅝@¾c higher at 51⅝@51⅞c and steadied at 51⅝c.

A rush of shorts to cover pushed up the oats market. December opened ⅛@¼c to ¼@⅜c higher at 34½c to 34⅝c and advanced to 34⅝@34¾c.

Slowness of demand let provisions drag. First sales were 2½@5c to 7½c off with the January option at $17.82½ for pork, $10.65 for lard and $9.42½ to $9.45 for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Sept. 26.—The amount of orders executed at the opening of the stock market today was small and prices moved listlessly. The prominent market leaders were higher, Reading rising 1¾ and Union Pacific and Denver & Rio Grande ¾. American Car declined ⅝.

Weakness in Amalgamated Copper and realizing in Reading and Union Pacific caused the market to halt, but profit taking sales were taken and prices did not give way much. The list later rose to its best again. Baltimore & Ohio, Toledo, St. Louis & Western preferred, Pacific Mail, American Telephone and Telegraph and Western Union gained 1 and Kansas City Southern 1¼. Rock Island preferred and Southern Railway preferred sagged 1¼ and Great Northern Ore Certificates 1.

Buying slackened, but there was no sign of weakness, prices ruling well up to the best.

Reading was traded in almost to the exclusion of almost anything else and rose further to 147⅛, a gain of nearly 4 points. Large blocks of the stock were bought and the shorts became very urgent. Reading preferred gained 3, Union Pacific 2¼, Southern Pacific 1⅝ and Illinois Central ½. Louisville & Nashville lost a point but recovered it.

The demand for stock increased and broadened, carrying prices comprehensively to a higher level. Reading, Union Pacific and United States Steel were most largely in default, but there were numerous advances of a point or more. The principal incentive was the report of concerted action amongst railroad labor organizations in favor of allowing higher freight charges. Buying for London account made a material factor of strength. Reading was carried up 2¾, Delaware & Hudson, Union Pacific and Northwestern 1¾. Bonds were strong.

The market closed easy. There was a marked contraction in the volume of the general market, but prices were not allowed to get much below the highest. There was a rise of 4½ in St. Louis Southwestern and of 6 in the preferred. Federal Mining sold at a decline of 5.

CHASE WILL STILL MANAGE.

Frank Farrell Will Stay at Head of Highlanders.

New York, Sept. 26.—"Hal Chase will manage the New York Americans after this," said President Frank Farrell this afternoon. "I have found out that the charges against Chase are absolutely untrue." Asked if the move also meant that Chase was to direct the fortunes of the Highlanders next season Mr. Farrell replied that that was a matter to be determined. Manager Stallings, himself, this afternoon authorized the announcement that he wasthrough as the team's manager. He had received a check in full for his services for the year, he said, and had severed his connection with the club.

NO SIGNS OF INSURGENCY.

Utah Republicans Meet to Nominate a Ticket.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 26.—The republican state convention met in this city today to nominate a representative in congress and a justice of the supreme court. There was no indication of insurgency.

It was the general opinion that Congressman Joseph Howell would be nominated on the first ballot. On the liquor question the indications were that the platform would declare for local option as an offset to the statewide prohibition plank recently adopted by the democratic convention.

The Trousseau!

Is there in a womans whole life a period so enchanting as that consumed in the preparation of the bridal trousseau?

Not a care or thought for the future—the bride-to-be is confident that the future is assured and that all that is required of her is to play her part well. The fond parents equip her with all that she individually requires, the full linen chest—the wardrobe forming the replete trousseau. Poor, indeed, has been the bride who did not, according to her station, fill her part with her dower of linen.

OUR word to the mother who is filling the chest, and to the bride-to-be who is running "thither and yon" selecting clothes, is to come here this week.

They will find in our

LINEN AND HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS, READY-TO-WEAR AND LINGERIE

Departments, an enchanting display.

Our showing is a time-saving method, particularly made with a view to aiding you in selecting. The bride always selects her corsets and lingerie first.

WOMEN'S APPAREL

We are offering some startling values in stylish garments in our cloak and suit room. Not only in this group of special offerings, but all through our stock of women's wear will you find originality of style and excellence of workmanship to an unusual degree and prices are most reasonable throughout the line. See these winners—

We have just received a lot of suits which a lucky strike enables us to offer at one-third less than value. They comprise blue, black and brown worsted suits, with 34-inch coats and new pleated skirts. The price is $18.50.

New models in suits in the season's stylish fabrics, especially priced at $22.50, $25.00, $27.50 and $37.50.

A special one-piece gown in fine chiffon Panama, black, blue, brown and gray, at $12.50.

A complete line of coats for women, misses and children.

All sorts of good materials, lengths, styles and colors, priced from $10 up to $25.

Our line of sweater coats for women and children is ready for your choosing.

SILKS

The first thing to say about them is that we have never shown silks so rich and beautiful. Silks in a wonderful variety of weave, a diamond brilliancy of finish, an unusual softness of texture, a fascinating richness of color. Silks to wear and delight in because of their usefulness.

First in fashion's repertoire comes the Persian silks, plain Persians and Persian stripes and plaids, rich combinations of the colors and designs of the Orient. Special qualities at 85c, $1.00 and $1.25 the yard.

Gros de Londres, a new silk fabric in changeable brocade effects, $1.00 a yard.

Printed marquisettes and printed chiffons, beautiful color effects, $1.50 a yard.

Popular messaline silks in all their wanted shades, 50c to $1.25 a yard.

Sublime Faille, a serviceable and stylish weave in rich colors, $1.25 a yard.

A great variety of plaid, stripes and fancy taffeta, at $1.00 a yard.

DRESS FABRICS

We are showing a line of dress fabrics that for newness, style and beauty cannot be equaled. Everything that fashion favors this fall is here. New weaves, new colorings. A wide range of rich and beautiful fabrics that tell the story of their goodness at sight. Will you see them?

At 50c we show excellent values in Scotch suitings, homespuns, Panamas, batistes and serges.

At $1.00 we offer a splendid array of cloths in qualities unusual at the price. See the 54-inch basket weaves and the 54-inch plaid suitings, also the serges, diagonals, henriettas, crepes and poplins.

Silk and wool poplins in plain and fancy weaves, all the very newest shades, priced from $1.25 to $2.00 a yard.

Broadcloths, our own special quality, thoroughly sponged and shrunk, all wanted shades, $2.00 and $2.50 a yard.

MILLINERY

In our millinery room we show models that reflect the latest fashionable fancies. We are constantly in touch with the skilled style designers of the millinery centers and ready to take advantage of every new idea. Fashion hints from Paris are the beautiful hats assembled here for autumn wearing and our prices are so reasonable that every woman can own a lovely and becoming hat for less than she ever dreamed millinery of such style could be bought for.

UNDERWEAR

The warm fretful days are over. With the change in the temperature come thoughts of providing comfortable undergarments. Our patrons have learned to look to us for all that is best in underwear, and this season's preparations have been along the same lines that have proven so satisfactory in the past. There is not an underwear need for the infant, the child, or the full grown that cannot be supplied here. Underwear for all ages, at prices to fit all purses and no matter what the price the best obtainable for the price.

DRESS TRIMMINGS

Gorgeous, that's the word that most fittingly describes our display of dress trimmings and garnitures. Wonderful combinations of color put together in graceful designs that show the touch of a master artist. The very latest Parisian ideas are all here. Color effects to match all the season's gown fabrics. The style and price range is extensive. Pretty narrow gimps at 10c, 12½c, 15c and 25c a yard up to the swellest novelties at $10.00 a yard.
